

SALTY PAWS FESTIVAL

Saturday October 15, 2011

11:00 am - 5:00 pm at Carolina Beach Lake

Dear Community Member,

Saving Animals During Disasters is so excited to announce the third annual SALTY PAWS FESTIVAL to take place around the beautiful Carolina Beach Lake on October 15th (rain date is October 16th). All proceeds go to help in the care and medical assistance of so many neglected and abused animals. The Salty Paws Festival is hosted by Saving Animals During Disasters, a 501 c3 non-profit organization whose goal is to aid in the rescue and support of disaster affected animals. As we have learned, disasters can be natural as well as man-made. The first two Salty Paws Festivals, which were held in the last two Octobers around the lake, were HUGE successes, drawing crowds of approximately 1500 people and 60 vendors each and more pets than we could count. We're expecting an even larger turnout this year.

The festival will have music, food, pet contests, pet adoptions, lots of activities for adults, children and pets, and many prizes will be given out all afternoon. Also, 300 goody bags will be given away to the first 300 attendees.

We'd like to invite you to become an individual or corporate sponsor of this event. Not only will you be contributing to a worthwhile cause in the community, but you'll receive valuable benefits as well. Attached is an outline of our sponsorship levels and benefits. We hope you'll consider a sponsorship, and we look forward to hearing from you.
