

Dear Community Member,

Saving Animals During Disasters is so excited to announce the sixth annual Salty Paws Festival to take place around the beautiful Carolina Beach Lake on October 18th. The Salty Paws Festival is hosted by Saving Animals During Disasters, a 501c3 non-profit organization whose goal is to aid in the rescue and support of animals affected by disasters, whether natural or manmade. All proceeds of the festival go toward care for these animals.

Saturday October 18, 2014

11:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Working with a network of generous supporters and corporate sponsors, we provide emergency aid in the form of food, medicine, intervention and veterinary care in cases where immediate action means the difference between life and death for animals with no other means of help. In addition to material support, our volunteers work to bring awareness and education to the community in hopes of preventing the cruel fate of so many animals at the hands of the inhumane among us.

Our previous five Salty Paws Festivals have been HUGE successes, attracting thousands of attendees and numerous vendors. This festival will have music, food, pet contests, pet adoptions, lots of activities for adults, children and pets, and many prizes will be given out all afternoon.

You have an important role in our community, and we hope you will offer your support by becoming a sponsor for this year's festival. Not only will you be contributing to a worthwhile cause in the community, but you'll receive valuable benefits as well. Every sponsorship level includes tickets to the festival and various types of advertising for your company. Other benefits of sponsorship are listed on the attached Sponsorship Levels page. We hope you'll consider a sponsorship, and we look forward to hearing from you.
